Blue Grass Valley

The play, "The girl from Porto Rico" which the young folks had gotten up for the benefit of the Red Cross was given at C.H.S. last Saturday night was quite a success. And last of all was the tableau, which was grand as well as patriotic. The characters were, Miss Cecelia Swecker as Miss Liberty, Mr. Richard Waybright, Sailor Boy, Dr. Berlie Swecker Soldier Boy and Misses Rosa Colaw and Annie Wimer as Red Cross nurses.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Gum and little son Winfred left Sunday for their home at Dunmore W. Va. after spending several days with Mrs. Gum's Aunts, Miss Rebecca Calhoun and Mrs. Norman Kramer. Richard Waybright, as sailor, Boy on the Dorthea is spending his fun-lough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Waybright.

Edward Wagner and family Miss Blanch White spent a few days, visiting Mr. Wagoner's brother John Wagoner near Staunton Va. Dr. Chas. S. Kramer of Marlinton and Digby White of Minnehaha W Va. attended the picnic at Crabbottom the 4th.

Mrs. W.E. Snyder and daughter Miss Dagie have returned home after having a short visit with Mrs. Snyder's sister Mrs. Michael Mauzy in Greenbrier County.

William C. Snyder and Bryan Folks are going away Tuesday to enlist in the Navy.

Harry Gum wife and little son and Mrs. Eda Hull and little daughter J. Mogenes spent Tuesday evening at Mr. A. Lee Wimer's.

Houston Wimer has returned home from Newport News.

Mrs. Delia Anderson, daughter Ola and sons Clyde and Joe with Misses Rodgers, Glenn and Celliam of Staunton motored to Crabbottom Sunday, spending the day with friends and relatives.

Miss Ioy Rexrode is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Minor Rexrode.

Miss Dexter Hevener is visiting at the home of James Hidy.

Mrs. Frank McNulty and little son Charles spent Monday night with Mrs. Gretchen Snyder.

Miss Stella Puffenbarger visited her brother Albert Puffenbarger on St. Creek last Saturday and Sunday.

William Kaiser has gone to fairmont, W. Va. where he has a position in a glass factory.

Sunbeam

Our attention has been called to two omissions in the long list of Red Cross contributors, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Colaw $15, and Charles Peterson $1 00.

If any other omissions have been discovered we will be glad to have it mentioned. The list was very long, transcribed once or twice, and there were several ways in which names might have been missed. As a matter of course, it was the intention of the committee to publish all the names, and no one blames a fellow for looking up such omission. This is everybody's war, and the absence of a name on a splendid list like that is the thing that attracts attention. In fact, most people have a more or less curious name for the fellow not found in the helping list at this stage of the war.

Court Day

Those who predicted that the busy season would prevent a turn-out at court were wrong, for Tuesday brought a large attendance and it proved a banner day for two branches of war activity—the W. S. S. campaign and Red Cross.

The court docket was a very short one and even the grand jury found but little to do, returning two indictments.

Judge Holt surrendered the court room at eleven o'clock to the speakers present, Hon. Joseph McAllister, of Warm Springs, having brought with him a returned wounded Canadian soldier, N. A. Marshall, and these two were the speakers of the morning.

In introducing them Attorney E. B. Jones made a short appeal to the people, and he was followed in a short address by Mr. McAllister.

Referring to Bath county's phenomenal record along all lines of war demands, Mr. McAllister gave all the credit to the ladies, and after soldier Marshall's address, a conference was held with Chairman Lloyd Sullenberger and the ladies present for the purpose of outlining plans for the campaign in Highland.

Mr. Marshall is quite a young man, about 20 years old, but he has faced the Beast in France, and was able to relate some thrilling, personal adventures and experiences. These personal references were interspersed with earnest and emphatic appeals to the people at home to lend moral and financial support.

During a noon recess the Highland Red Cross Chapter served luncheon on the court lawn, and from this effort, approximately $95 were realized.

At 1:30 E. D. Swecker called the crowd to the front of the court house, where the following speakers were introduced in the order named: Hon. Joseph A. Glasgow, Judge Henry Holt, Hon. Rudolph Bumgardner, and Hon. B. H. Hiner.

A number of workers passed to and fro among the people during the afternoon, and while no actual figures have yet been presented, it was said that something like twenty thousand dollars worth of stamps were sold.

Inasmuch as so few of the town people had an opportunity to hear private Marshall in the morning, a night session was arranged for the Methodist church, and there was a crowded house when 8:30 came.

The speakers were introduced by A. L. Jones, Mr. McAllister making the first talk, followed by S. D. Timberlake and he by private Marshall.

Owing to the absence of material witnesses none of the few cases set for the term were tried on Tuesday. The proceedings in detail will appear in next week's issue.

Auto Accident

While coming to Monterey Wednesday morning, some part of the steering gear on David Folk's Ford went wrong when crossing the little bridge at the foot of the Beverage hill, and the machine turned turtle.

Cleveland Corbett was the only occupant of the car besides Mr. Folks, and he was right badly hurt. His jaw was dislocated and several teeth knocked out. After necessary surgical attention, Mr. Corbett was able to walk about the streets. Mr. Folks also received some hurts and bruises, but of a minor nature.

Notice Settlement

All old blacksmith accounts due E. K. Samples, will please settle with me in the next sixty days, and if not paid by that time, the same will be placed in an officer's hands for collection. Respectfully,

Notice

Bids will be rec'd for furnishing wood for the Selco's of the Monterey Dist. for the school year 1918 and 19 up to noon Saturday July 27. Contracts for the rural schools will be for the said term and the Monterey school by the cord.

Bids will also be rec'd for running the Monterey School wagon for a term of six months.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the board
H. P. Patterson, Clerk.

Being extremely desirous to curtail my stock, I will regardless of what the present jobbing prices are close out several lines of goods at the old prices. And would especially ask you to see our men's, boys' and children's clothing, odd pants, etc. A splendid line of ready to wear children wash dresses and suits, summer under wear, a beautiful line of summer dress goods, rain coats, men's boys' and children's hats and in fact a great many other things that we are going to sell at the old price, simply to curtail stock. When you come to town come in and see a few bargains even as on the sky scraping prices all around. We will pay for the next 10 days as follows for produce: Eggs 35c, butter 30c, chickens 35c, hens 25c.

Death

Miss Ida Smith died at her home two miles north of town last Saturday morning, her death being due to organic heart trouble.

She was a daughter of the late George A. Smith who died suddenly six years ago while sitting in Dr. Trimble's office. She was unmarried and about 35 years of age. An aged, invalid mother survives her, and there are two sisters, Miss Sidney Smith, of this county, and Mrs. Jacob Eckard, of Pendleton. Of the five brothers three are residents of Highland and two of Bath. Her funeral took place from the home Sunday afternoon, was conducted by Rev. Josiah Beverage, of the Brethren church, and was largely attended.

Resignation

To the Highland County Red Cross Chapter:—It has been a great pleasure to me to be of service to the Highland county Chapter in rendering what little service I could, and it is with much regret that I am now compelled, on account of my health, to resign as the county chairman.

In resigning I wish to thank all members of the chapter for the service they have given and especially those who have given me so much personal help. Each and every call that came has been responded to so generously. And let us hope that the future success of the chapter may be far beyond that of the past.
